BLANCHARD & MOREN.

TRIAL OF OGLE. This trial was concluded yesterday by n able argument from Acting District Attorney Maury, who refuted the plea of insanity set up by the defence, and urged upon the jury the necessity for enforcing the law. The case was submitted to the jury by the court, with the following instructions on the part of the defence:

1. If the jury believe from the evidence that the prisoner, at the time he discharged the gun mentioned in the indictment, was laboring under a constitutional of other mental disease, which for the time controlled his will, then he is not responsible for the consequences of said shooting, or act, and they ought to acquit him.

2. If the jury believe from the evidence that the prisoner unlawfully discharged a gun at the orgetown, it this county, and by reason thereof the death of John Webb was occasioned, but entertain a reasonable doubles to whether he (the prisoner) was influenced by malic lowards said deceased, or intended to kill him or any other person, then they should find a verdict of man slangliter only.

3. If the jury believe, from the evidence, that the prisoner had included for a length of time in the cases sive use of intoxicating drinks prior to the shooting charged in the indictment, and that at said time o shooting he was under the influence of liquor, whilst in toxication is no excuse for crime, yet it may be considered by them, in connexion with all the other chrome stances in the case, to show the non-existence of malice or an intention to take life.

The following instructions on the part of the prosecu-

ing attorney were also submitted:

"If, from the cyldence aforesaid, the jury believe that the prisoner, Benjamin Ogle, then and there shot off and discharged the deadly weapon, to wit: the gun aforesaid, in First street aforesaid, with general malice or inclination to mischief, fall where it might, or with the intent to kill or do some grievous bodily harm to the deceased, John Webb, or other persons, and in fact did, with the gun aforsaid, then and there kill the said John Webb, then the prisoner is guilty of murder."

The verdict of the jury will probably be rendered this norming. The prisoner appears to be perfectly indiffer-ent as to his fate, and remarked, as he entered his cell at the fail after the trial yesterday, that there were "ten for

DEATH OF A WASHINGTONIAN IN CHINA. - A CORTESPOND ent of the New York Times, writing on board the United States steamer San Jacinto, at Hong-Kong, December 14,

"I regret to have to record the death, on the 13th, of James A. Gates, gunner in the United States navy, and attached at the time of his death to the United States ship Portsmouth. Mr. Gates's loss will be severely felt on his ship, as he was a most efficient officer and an estimable man. His residence was Washington, D. C. He leaves a wife to mourn his loss. His merits as an officer and a man were testified to this day by a large attendance of the officers and men of the United States squadron at his topical, when she did not fail during the weary days of inneral, who also did not fall during the weary days of his filness and the struggles of his dying hour to show anto him every kindness, and to smooth his pathway to the tomb. the legislature of Maryland the purport of which is to place this work in such a position that the creditors (including the State) may have a prospect of realizing some thing from their outlay. The Baltimore Patriot sees no objection to the bill on its face, and, judging from the character of the gentlemen most prominent in the matter, thinks that no injury can accrue to any creditor by or likely to receive, anything from its revenue, excep the officers who manage its affairs. By putting it in complete repair, as contemplated by this bill, and fund-ing all its other liabilities in bonds, with a good, judicious management, there is a possibility at least that this change will be for the better. of Miss Christic Johnson on Thursday night, at Mr. Cor-coran's Hall, and have to express our great gratification for the pleasure which she afforded us. The audience was a highly appreciative one, and they evinced their appro bation by the most emphatic applause. Her selection were both humorous and pathetic; and she read them with fine effect, but she excels in the pathetic. The Child's Trance, and the Bridge of Sighs, were rendered with thrilling effect. She merits the fullest success, and we sincerely hope that she will attain it.

SILVERWARE. - The old fashion for family turning, it having been discovered that the counterfeits of the pure metal are soon stripped of their plating. Silver is also rising in popular estimation as gold become more plentiful, and, after all, it is the most social metal of the two, for gold is too costly for common use. .$140 00 any rate, there are few stores on the avenue which pre sent any display as attractive as is the glittering assortment of pitchers, goblets, waiters, tea sets, castors, and other household arrangements displayed by the Messrs. Galt. Every one, especially those wishing to make presents, should look at them.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE FOR MARCH has been sent us by Blanchard & Mohun, (who occupy the late Mr. Farnham's store,) and a most interesting number it is. Among the original articles we notice Illustrated Papers on the Upper Mississippi, Tropical Journeyings, and the Bladensburg Duel ling Ground -the latter giving a detailed history of the 'dark and bloody ground' near by us. There are also four new chapters of Thackeray's Virginians, with a large variety of other entertaining reading. The number is an am Aronatic Schnapps.

This gin is manufactured by the proprietor exclusively at his disery in Schiedam, Holland. It is made from the best barley that can be procured in Europe at any cost, and flavored and medicated, not by the common harsh berry, but by the most choice botanical variety of the aromatic Railian juniper berry, whose more visions extract is distilled and recipied with its spirituous solvent, and thus becomes a coentrated inecture of equisite flavor and aroma, sitogether transcending in its cordial and medicinal properties any alcoholic beverage heretofore known.

The proprietor has admitted it to nearly the whole medical foculty of the United States, and has received answers from about four thousand physicians and chemists, who ended in over their signatures, as a most desirable addition to the medical insuch a solution of the contract and different colors.
